WHAT YOUR KID'S HANDWRITING CAN TELL YOU

Your handwriting can reveal up to 5,000 personality traits! This is true of kids' writing, too!
Especially after they've developed their own cursive style around age 8.

Change your writing.
Writing will change your life.

Did you know ?

Graphology can reveal personality traits, emotional states, and even hidden talents, just by analyzing handwriting strokes!

Graphotherapy is a scientific form of writing.

This works on the child's subconscious mind to make positive changes in their personality.

It involves daily handwriting exercises that will re-programme your children's mind.

Every stroke is important,
Because every strokes tell something about your children.

SLANTED WRITING

1- slant to the right

The bigger the slant ,the more extrovert she is - and the more outgoing and expressive too !

2- slant to the Left

Your child is shy , reserved and even withdraw at times

3- slant up and down

Your kid is logical, brainy and bit of an introvert

4- Slant All Over The Place

Watch out for super moody behaviour

Letters size

Very Tiny

This child has amazing powers of concentration and feels things very intensely.

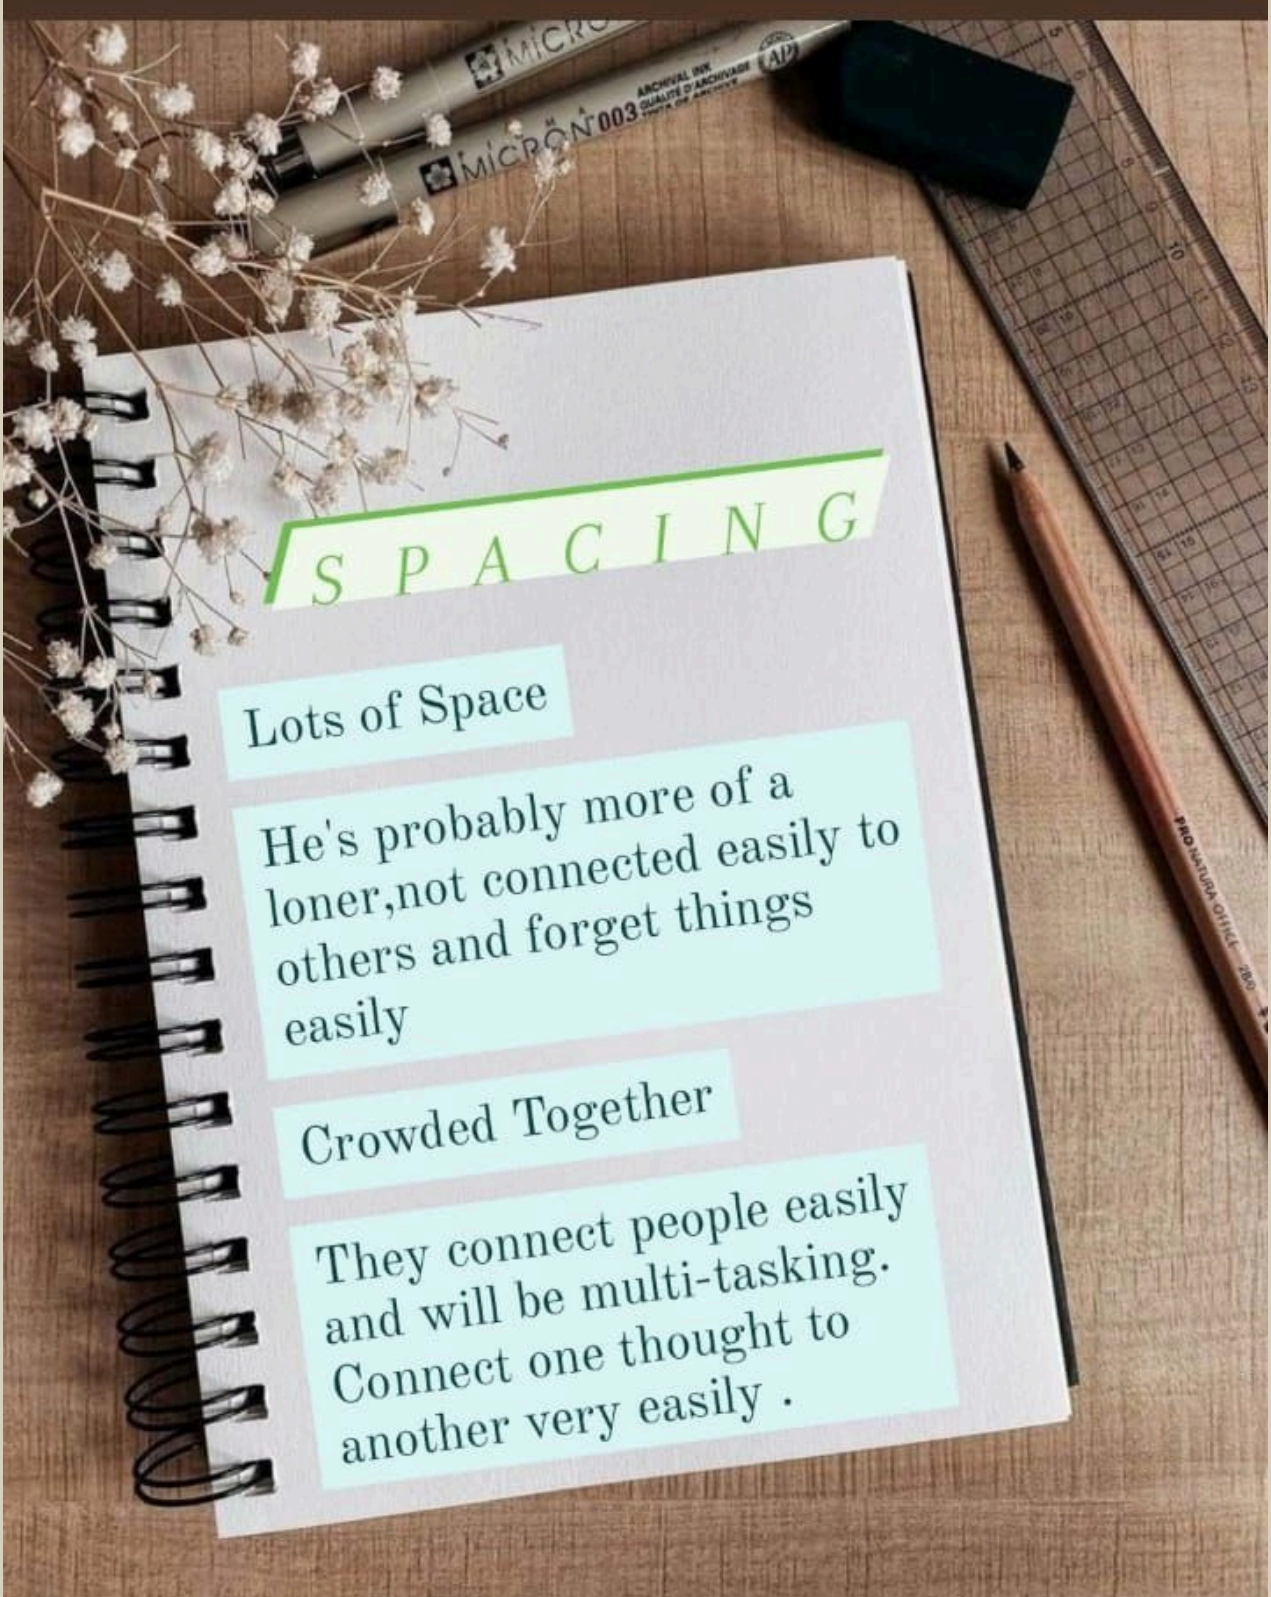

Average-Sized

Your kid is probably pretty balanced.

Large Letters

The sign of a big personality! These are the kids who want and need plenty of attention and understanding

SPACING

Lots of Space

He's probably more of a loner, not connected easily to others and forget things easily

Crowded Together

They connect people easily and will be multi-tasking. Connect one thought to another very easily .

PRESSURE

HEAVY

A kid who presses down is passionate, and approaches life with gusto. He also tends to hold a grudge a long time before letting go.

LIGHT

This child goes with the flow. She may feel emotions just as intensely as any other kid, but she's more inclined to let slights and mean remarks roll off her back.
